

MANUFACTURING IN A NEW WORLD: IMPLICATIONS FOR SOUTH AFRICA

The Durban Automotive Cluster, in collaboration with the Toyota Wessels Institute for Manufacturing Studies (TWIMS) invites you to a strategic breakfast seminar hosted by Dr Johan Van Zyl, CEO of Toyota Europe.

In order to thank your firm for your continued role in sector development and commitment to the cluster, this offer is complimentary attendance to a seminar with an internationally-recognised thought leader in manufacturing. Given the high demand for this event and the fact that attendance is limited, participation is limited to one senior executive or director per firm.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The Brexit debate and the US-China trade war continue to cause uncertainty for manufacturers globally. What does manufacturing in the new world look like and what are the implications for South Africa.

Dr Johan Van Zyl, CEO of Toyota Europe will share his insights on global manufacturing and how South Africa must adapt to thrive in this new world during the inaugural TWIMS breakfast seminar series.

The seminar will begin with a buffet breakfast, continue with a presentation by Dr Van Zyl and thereafter there will be a Q&A session to follow.

Time: 7:45 – 10:00am

Date: 20 May 2019

Venue: TWIMS, 74 Everton Road, Kloof

Price: Complimentary to invited cluster members

Spaces are limited. Please RSVP as soon as possible to secure your place.

DAC@bmanalysts.com